Chapter 2

jacqueline "jack" johansen

I stepped away from my computer and flopped down in my bed and everything went black... I felt a gentle shake i struggled to open my eyes against the blinding evening light and i saw my best friends surrounding my bed.

"hey jack wake up!" said snow.

"what's our surprise? just tell us!" screamed cindy shaking me like a ragdoll.

"This is! now stop shaking me!" i yelled.

I opened my palm to reveal magic beans but they clearly didn't know that!

"Is this a joke!" said ariel "those are beans!"

"no you dummy!" i said " these are MAGIC beans"

"how do you know that they are magic?" said jasmine

"because I've used their magic before" i said "come on i'll show you"

We ran out the door like a flash. I saw the ground we ran to the back of the barn in a few seconds. I hid in the hayloft because the barnhouse only has one room and 2 haylofts! we all hid in the hayloft to see a beanstalk standing tall in the sky! It wasn't like any beanstalk i had ever planted for instance instead of green this beanstalk was brown and rotting like it were dead and instead of being green the pea pods were not green either they were jet black ! I mean, that doesn't even occur naturally ! I wish i lived in a normal town like everyone else !

“i thought yesterday you said you didn't plant a beanstalk in a long time” said snow

“i haven't” i said

Chapter 3

what did that girl just say? with her western accent she mustered up the words “I didn't” um, exsqueeze me, but who the heck planted this enormous beanstalk, well jack certainly was not making the situation better! she looked at us with her sad little doe eyes and said “come on your surprise is not over yet!” what the @#$! is that supposed to mean? Anyway she ran towards the beanstalk gleaming with pride, she started up the beanstalk swinging swiftly from branch to branch man, this girl is like tarzan! well, probably because she's done this many times before, we all started after her it was as cold as ice, she climbed up the beanstalk! EP she climbs this thing! I mean the branches are like stone, she was my worst subject! so this was especially hard for me, but apparently jack was very good at this kind of thing because she was up in five minutes me and jasmine were fine we hitched a ride on the magic carpet and floated all the way up! everyone else just used upper body strength and willpower me and jasmine have neither so we took carpet. We finally reached the top of the beanstalk after a difficult 30 seconds of flying (not) we waited for everyone else "well thank you for the help" said cindy out of breath. "well, we have had enough climbing for one day" said ariel "well good for you we won't have to climb the way down" said jack, laughing "what are you talking about-"said cindy "I'll explain later" says jack. what the heck is this girls talking about? "Well where are we supposed to go now?" i said "there" says jack. she was referring to an enormous castle made of solid gold it was prettier than my castle at home honestly, i wish i were at home right now. But I was too late we were going in this was it wish me luck im gonna need it!

Rapunzel "punsey" robinson

We got to the enormous castle and i finally got the courage to ask, "hey, how do we get in the castle?" "We go through there" said jack she pointed at an enormous broom which leads to an enormous window "I'll go up" i said "okay" said jack "i'll go up to the top i'll throw down my hair okay?" "okay" said jack i ran towards the colossal broom i grabbed the bristles and started climbing the oak handle to the top i was so high i felt faint but i shook it off i and reached the window sill it was as cold as ice! i hoisted my hair down to the ground. "intrepid explorers" climbed my thick golden strands of hair. it was extremely painful but like jack always says you have to rough it to get it! "hey, what are we gonna do now?" i asked "you'll see " she said and suddenly whistled loudly. I have no idea what she did that for but when i realized what she did call for then i stared at it with wild eyes...

well, the girls were crazy when they met robert, robert is my best friend who just so happens to be a giant, but come on he's as sweet as sugar!

"who is that?" said jasmine

"my name is robert! , i live here!" said robert with a smile

"hey rob!," i yell " we need a ride!"

"You got it!" he said with joy in his voice " But on one condition"

" you name it!" I said but I wasn't really sure I meant it

"OK" he said shyly " you will have to go on a date with me!"

"I want you" said Robert "to go on a date with me I mean a dinner date under candlelight like I've always wanted you to"

"I would love to go on a date with you" I said "I'm very happy with the idea of not eating on the roof of a store for once" robert laughed "we'll eat at my place you can eat when my dad leaves the room"

"why is that?" asked jasmine

"because if he saw me with a human he would kill her, literally" said robert that was a good enough reason for me!

"deal" i said as i shook his house-sized hand he lifted his hat on his hat and said

"Jump in your chariot awaits my lady or... Ladies"

We all laughed and climbed his giant skyscraper head once we were under the hat I felt a great lurch of motion as we sped up the stairs to Roberts room he gently set us in his bed one by one Robert leaned down until his head was leveled with my body "so jack what are you trying to steal this time?"

chapter 5

snow "snowy" white

Whoa,Whoa,Whoa, what was this guy talking about? For a head as big as a skyscraper his brain is the size of a walnut! We were not going to steal anything Right? Right!!

Oh we were going to steal something, The target: a magic golden harp The reason: that answer is classified

“so???” said robert

“we’re going after the magic harp made of gold” I said

“i like the idea of that!” said jasmine

“the harp? its too small for me to pick up its from the human world you will have to get it yourselves if you want it im sorry” said robert

“thats okay” i said

i started trekking down the bed post and towards the door all of the girls following me

“guys do exactly as i do i've been in the treasure room hundreds of times i know how to get around here” i said

we climbed down the gold steps and finally we reached a room with a large gold display case in them were a gold cheetah with emerald eyes a gold statue of the thinker and Alas! the harp i was looking for! i gestured towards some books that robert set up to act as stairs we climbed up but what’s this? roberts monstrous father was sleeping at his desk i pressed my finger to my lips as we crept by the giants crusty brown lips and and fat ugly nose he stirred but did not walk we crept into the display case and grabbed the harp “yes!!” i whispered but the giant heard me he lifted his head quickly and banged his head on the case causing me to fall out

“you puny brat!!” he screamed

he lurched towards me as the girls jumped onto the desk and started running after me we all jumped and landed on the floor i felt a snap inside of me i ran, limping

“everybody grab a napkin over there!!” i yelled

“Why?” yelled belle

“iust trust me!” i screamed “and hold onto them no matter what!!!”

we ran out the window up another set of roberts book staircases and ran out to the front yard

we finally reached the beanstalk “see more of Story Wars” yelled

“when i say jump jump!”

Did she just say that we have to jump? The giant man poked his head over the side of his extremely private property and jack screamed “jump!!!”

we all jumped

“take out the napkins and use them as parachutes!” said jack

she was holding the harp between her feet we finally landed but the giant didn't stop he continued climbing down the beanstalk

"guys!" said jack "you have to go to the marketplace and sell the harp for anything over 2,000 dollars"

"why?" i said

"i'll tell you guys later! But it's urgent!" said jack

we all rushed to the market place and ran to the selling booth where we were met by wide eyes of a seller

"what would you like to sell that for?" he said

"2 thousand dollars and hurry it's urgent!" i yelled

"you got it" the seller said as he wrapped his eager hands around the harp we whirled and sped towards the medicine store once we were in we saw a strange man

"we need your magic urbs i finally got the money!!" shouted jack she handed the stack of bills to the man he silently slipped her a jar filled with strange brown fruits we ran out of the door and fled to the farmhouse we ripped open the door and followed jack to a second hay loft a pale body lay on a bed of straw jack knelt beside her and said

"Mom i got them"

"jack" said the pale figure "i don't belong here"

"what are you talking about?"

"it's time for me to move on to the next life"

"No mom don't please i need you!"

"no you don't"

the pale figure rested her hand on jack's cheek and then closed her eyes her hand slowly fell

"no! Mom! no! please!" screamed jack shaking the stranger

"i'm sorry but i think she's gone" said snow

"who was that?" i said

"my mom" said jack sadly

"you guys should go" said jack

"OK" i said

we all walked out

died he always asked me to write a story but I never did I stared at it and ran my fingers over the keys strange lines and symbols lining the keys I think my dad said that they were called "numbers and letters" whatever the heck those are I walked through the long empty halls I reached an enormous stairwell I attempted to slide down a spiral stairwell it was about 40 feet up I slid down but I felt the force of friction working against me as I slowly fell backwards I saw the beautiful ceiling it had a mural of a girl and her mother and her father and two other boys stood in the foreground in front of a beautiful household they looked happy I closed my eyes as I hit the glass and gold studded floor with a crash

Chapter 12

Hansel charming

I was watching from my room as I saw the most beautiful girl I have ever seen she had flawless pale skin her cheeks were as rosy as an actual rose she had a soft smile but her eyes were closed her Long wavy hair dropped to her chest her hands were clasped on top of her stomach she had bandages lining her chest and legs she had both of her legs escalated above her body in casts suddenly, her eyes burst open they were the loveliest hazel I had ever seen she had a frightened look in her eye she raised herself from the gurney she grasped her heart and fainted that was it I was going to see her I wished then I realized I was hooked up to machines giving me blood after the accident what happened was my fathers troops were staying for a party but little did they know that among them was a spy he started to take soldier hostage and as I walked in with cocktails and small appetizers the spy shot me in the legs and arms once the spy left I was almost dead but my father called the ambulance and I came to the hospital so I waited patiently for the blood transfusion to be over as soon as it was over I sprang up from the gurney and ran to say hello I ran quickly down to the hall to meet the beautiful girl I walked slowly to her bed and shook her slowly she stirred and then her eyes flew open she shot up I rested my hands on both her rosy cheeks and

"My names hanel what happened to you?" I said

"Well" replied the beautiful girl "my name is jack and what happened was I was trying to slide down the stairs of the castle which were 40 feet up and long story short I fell and I don't know what happened"

I could not resist this opportunity to enhance my romance life

"I am so sorry!! I'm right here if you need anything" I said hugging her gently

"Thank you" she whispered "what happened to you?"

"I don't really want to talk about it" I said

"Oh okay" she said "just so you know I don't actually live in a castle I just had to move in with my best Friend after my mother died and since I had no parents I had to live Like a brat for a day until my accident and now I'm here"

I was shocked I thought that she was a princess But now I know that I need to help this girl

"So,jack, where are you going to go when you get out of the hospital" i said

"Probably on the roof of a store or factory, or the old abandoned schoolhouse or the old barn I found deep in the woods,maybe there is an abandoned house I can look into"

She said

"Well,you could just live in the castle" I suggested

"I need to get out of here!" She said " I can't sit here and wait for fate to take its tole"

"Maybe it already has" I said " but anyway if you leave you might not survive!"

"I don't want to survive I want to live!" She cried
